WINE of THE MONTH

HUBERT LAMY Bourgogne “Les Chataigniers” 2016

This delightful chardonnay is grown amongst the cool white limestone soils of Les Chataigniers in Burgundy and aged in French oak.

The end result is a juicy white Burgundy with refreshing minerality. Notes of citrus are complimented with an acidic component and, finally, a dry finish.

Lamy is a family that knows good Burgundy wine! There are records of the Lamy family growing vines since 1640!

Regular Price: $56.00
This Month: $50.40

WINES TO “FALL” IN LOVE WITH

Ok, we know that was cheesy... but even though the leaves might not change colour in Paradise, we still have some great wines to suggest for Autumn.

Cune Crianza Rioja

85% Tempranillo, 15% Grenache

One sip of this Rioja and you'll warm right up! Earthy, with hints of spices, this red is complex but still offers a fresh finish.

Price: $22.40

Joseph Mellot Sancerre “La Chatellenie”

100% Sauvignon Blanc

Sancerres are an ideal autumn white wine. This option from Joseph Mellot is delicate but also contains a nice fullness, along with flinty notes that the region is known for.

Price: $47.60

Rocche dei Manzoni Barbera D’Alba “La Cresta”

100% Barbera

Barberas are known for being rich while also light-bodied. This is thanks to their acidity. “La Cresta” has soft tannins and dark fruit notes that are perfect for fall.

Price: $61.60
