~ DID YOU KNOW ~

Not only is Miraval one of the most sought after bottles to get this coming rosé season, did you know it is also partially owned by Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie!? The pair partnered with Perrin family to create this stunning rosé.

It has created such a demand that counterfeit bottles have been produced. The wine, which is a blend of Grenache, Carignan, Syrah and Rolle, now comes with the anti-counterfeit protection within it's bottles engravings. But not to worry about your bottle!

We get all of our wine directly from the vineyards in Provence!

Thanks for the amazing wine Brangelina and Perrins!
